From every viewpoint the meeting was delightful. The President was at his best, recalling any detail inquired about as bearing upon the international situation and enlivening the whole conference with a humorous anecdote now and then in his old-time charactertistic way. We are agreed as to the meaning and suffielency of the Democratic platform and the duty of the party in the face of threatened bad faith to the world in the name of America.

His thought is still of the war and the pledges we gave to those who sacrificed. One easily sees that as the leader of the Nation who asked for our sons and our resources upon a very distinct understanding and obligation he is resolved that the faith shall be kept.
